

Middle School Supplies for 2009-2010

Please keep in mind that each teacher may have additional supplies to discuss with your child on the first day of school and/or during the year.

Basic Supplies for ALL Classes and Grades:

Blue/Black pens
Pencils
Whiteout
Loose-leaf Lined paper
Highlighters
Colored Pencils
Flash Drive to save work

GRADE 6

English: Mr. Smith/Ms. Neal

ONE hard-back composition book (available at any reputable grocery or stationery store)
ONE durable spiral notebook for vocab words
Pocket folder for grammar

6th Grade History & Current Events: Mr. Gramman

Pencils and blue or black ballpoint pens
2 folders (one for History and one for Current Events)
2 spiral notebooks with perforated edges (one for History and one for Current Events)
1 Composition Notebook (for journaling purposes)
Colored pencils
Highlighters

Math & Science: Mrs. Keen

Scientific calculator—most students tend to find the Texas Instrument 30 series work the best for them protractor
compass
ruler (metric and English)
graph paper (in a spiral notebook)
2 folders one for Math and one for Science
1 spiral notebook

French:

Folder with pockets on either side to be used for French only
Spiral notebook

Spanish: Ms. Brewer

1 spiral notebook with perforated edges to be used ONLY FOR SPANISH

1 two in. Three-ring binder with dividers with four categories:

- A) Spanish Culture
- B) Grammar
- C) Class Handouts
- D) Daily Work/Homework

Plain white note-cards for Chapter vocabulary. Flashcards for Spanish need to be continually replenished, as there is much vocabulary in Spanish class. I would recommend having an extra stack available at all times.

Poster-boards (1-2 for the whole year)

Spanish to English/English to Spanish Dictionary*

*In class, we use the Larousse Spanish-English/Inglés-Español Pocket Dictionary; please avoid anything like 10,000 Spanish verbs, etc.

Latin: Ms. Brewer

1 spiral notebook with perforated edges to be used FOR LATIN ONLY

1 one in. Three-ring binder with dividers with four categories:

- A) Vocabulary
- B) Grammar
- C) Ancient History and Culture
- D) Daily Work/Homework

Plain white note-cards for Textbook vocabulary N.B. There is much vocabulary in Latin, and flashcards will be required for every stage.

The student's supply of flashcards may need replenishing during the school year.
